

Dr. Sowmya Karantha C

Research Scientist

Qualifications

MBBS, Vijayanagar Institute of Medical Sciences, Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka

DCH, Vijayanagar Institute of Medical Sciences, Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka

Key areas of research: Nutrition (maternal and child health) and growth and development of children.

Core strengths: Design and implementation of study protocols for community-based studies involving maternal and child health. Scoping and systematic review.

Work Experience: Has eight years of professional experience across clinical practice, and academia. Worked as a medical officer attending to children and adults in various places like Lucknow and Visakhapatnam. During this period was involved in training of under and postgraduates. Has eight years of experience in hospital and community research. Since 2020, she has been affiliated with the Society for Applied Studies, where she is a part of the nutrition domain and contributes to designing and implementation of research aimed at improving maternal and child health in low-resource settings.

ORCID Id:

ResearchGate: <https://www.researchgate.net/scientific-contributions/Sowmya-C-Karantha-2254719428>

Google Scholar: